IN RECOGNITION OF THE 125TH ANNIVERSARY OF EULATON BAPTIST CHURCH

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 11, 2013

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask for the House's attention today to recognize the congregation of Eulaton Baptist Church, which will be celebrating their 125th anniversary on June 13th.

In 1888, in the community of Eulatonin, Alabama, 30 people gathered to worship in an old school house. Eulatonin, a community in Anniston, Alabama, was named after Mrs. Eula

Ford. This church was founded as a Southern Missionary Baptist Church with an emphasis on missions.

One hundred twenty-five years later, this church and its congregation have grown immensely. However, they remain focused on missions and serving their community of Eulaton, in Anniston, Alabama.

On Sunday, August 4th, members, friends and the community will gather together at the church to remember, reflect and rejoice on the triumphs of Eulaton Baptist Church. Please join me in celebrating their rich history and wishing them great success in the future.
